

Risk Management

In order to make sure that we're continually improving our efforts to provide a safe and ethical workplace, it is our policy that APC's Risk Management team meet periodically to identify organizational exposures, analyze risks, and control liabilities through a risk mitigation plan. The plan is monitored for its effectiveness and recommendations for policy changes are created and communicated to employees as needed.